

What makes a cash first community?

It isn't right that people don't have enough money to afford the essentials such as food. We all have a role to play in building a society where nobody needs to turn to charitable food aid.

Which parts of the #CashFirstCommunities puzzle are taking place in your local area?

